Testimonials

"Our Think for the Future provision is incredibly important to us because inclusion is at the heart of everything we do. We are serving the needs of every student and in some cases these needs cannot be met without additional support, often additional pastoral support, as a significant proportion have challenges in their own lives for which organisations like TFTF can help us to overcome."

Richard Scott

Executive Principal, Thomas Clarkson Academy

"From day one of our daughter going into a TFTF Centre there was an immediate positive change. It was amazing what a different environment can do and it caters for what she needs perfectly for learning and personally. A smaller, calm atmosphere away from a mainstream classroom that she found overwhelming. We really appreciate everything you've done!"

Our Staff

The TFTF Inclusion Centre staff are highly trained professionals dedicated to supporting students with diverse needs. They work closely with school staff to create inclusive environments that foster academic and social success. The team includes specialists in behaviour management, special education and mental health, ensuring that students receive comprehensive support tailored to their individual needs.

All our staff undergo extensive training and are carefully managed by Think for the Future, with regular quality assurance observations conducted throughout the year to maintain the highest delivery standards.

Previous to TFTF I have worked in schools for most of my career. I then joined Think for the Future as a Behaviour & Resilience Mentor working with young people across many schools in Yorkshire. As my first year as a TFTF mentor came to a close, I felt a significant improvement in my role, thanks to the constructive support from my manager. During my second year, I continued to thrive, receiving brilliant advice and having impactful conversations about my career progression at Think for the Future.

I eagerly joined the Inclusion Centre Provision team, feeling well-prepared by my previous experiences working across schools with young people at TFTF. The company's supportive network and progressive nature, combined with high-quality training, gave me the confidence to excel in my new role as an Inclusion Centre Manager.

Working as a Centre Manager, I have had the privilege of supporting young people to transform their behaviour and re-engage with their education. Seeing the positive changes in their attitudes and school engagement has been incredibly rewarding. I lead my Centre

Since taking on this role, I have embraced the challenges and can proudly say that I love my job and the company I work for. TFTF's commitment to employee growth and success has made my journey truly rewarding.

Nicky - Centre Manager

Leeds

I have been working with children and young people for over 10 years in many different capacities, including Early Years, Alternative Provisions, Residential Care and Family Support.

Working in a TFTF Inclusion Centre is like coming to work with your family. You get to develop strong relationships with your team and the most challenging of young people, and in the process, create an educational space that suits the learning needs of young people who would otherwise not manage in school. The most rewarding part of my job is seeing young people's attitudes towards adults and learning improve, and seeing them develop skills such as resilience, accountability and responsibility just from having more positive relationships with adults where they can make mistakes while experiencing unconditional positive regard.

My role as Deputy Manager means I am generally very operational, spending most of my days supporting the manager and mentors, dealing with behaviour, helping in lessons and being a main contact for the school. My role requires me to be a real team player, as well as strategic, solution focused, creative and adaptive.

Jade - Centre Deputy Manager
Coventry

I was born in Wolverhampton but moved to Birmingham shortly after. It was here in Birmingham that I signed for Birmingham City Football Club, where I progressed through the entire youth system up to the U21s level. Football has always been a major part of my life, both as a child and as an adult. Even now, coaching football is a key focus of my life after I finish work at TFTF.

I joined TFTF to make a positive difference in the lives of young people throughout their school day. I believe my positive approach creates a relaxed and welcoming environment for the students, helping them feel calm and at ease when they enter the centre.

Tailored Support for Teaching & Learning

We believe in giving students the best opportunity for academic success

KS3 & KS4

Our Inclusion Centres accommodate both KS3 and KS4 cohorts who attend the Centre together, but are taught in separate classes.

5-13 Students

Each key stage cohort could include between 5 and 13 students, depending on overall provision size.

Combined Year Groups

Key stages will combine year groups into single classes. TFTF can offer support for teachers to adapt to this structure and provide a network between our centre teachers.

TFTF Team Support

The TFTF Team are positioned to support all lessons through managing behaviour, regulating students or deployed within the classroom to support teaching.

Teaching & Learning

The teaching within our centres is provided by the school, with subject specialists teaching 80% of the student's timetable. Please see below an example timetable within our centres. The TFTF lessons are our mentoring sessions delivered by the TFTF Inclusion Centre Mentors.

Behaviour Process

The behaviour process is designed to give young people the opportunities to make the right choices and correct behaviours, in particular it's there to stop poor lessons from escalating into poor days.

The first stage of the formal process given by teacher or mentor inside the classroom. Can be used more than once where appropriate/necessary.

If remind hasn't been successful then a formal warning would need to be issued either by mentor or teacher as the next stage of the formal process.

If warn hasn't been successful then a reset will be initiated. Reset provides a quiet and calming environment where students can take a break, reflect, and reset before returning to their activities.

The student would be taken to the removal room where a 6 step process is followed to calm, reflect, regain compliance, complete work and then return to learning.

High Quality Social & Emotional Learning Curriculum

Following the introductory weeks, the mentoring curriculum will work through the following curriculum blocks, the order of which will be determined by the Centre Team. Each block contains 8 themes which can be selected from:

Developing
Communication
& Social Skills

Improving
Behaviours &
Attitudes

Thinking about
Aspirations,
Motivations &
the Future

Building
Confidence,
Resilience &
Self-Esteem

Dealing with Emotions

Having Tolerance &
Respect

Curriculum Layout

Each theme in the 8-week programme has 3 pre-planned mentoring sessions to learn, develop and apply the learning surrounding the theme that week. The week will be book ended by a goal setting session on Monday to outline the week for students and a review session on Friday where students can be recognised for their successes and achieved goals.

Your Data, Made Simple.

Purple is a powerful analytics platform that helps you track and understand key school data, including behaviour, attendance, suspensions and more. Easily explore whole-school trends, monitor specific groups or dive into an individual student's profiles.

One of Purple's standout features is its ability to measure the impact and cost-effectiveness of any interventions, whether it's an after-school club or an external programme like our Inclusion Centre Provision. Are students actually making progress? Purple helps you answer this questions with confidence.

By turning complex data into clear, visual dashboards, Purple saves you time and makes analysis simple, so you can make informed, data-driven decisions every day.

Our Mission:

Empowering educators to make data-driven decisions which maximise student impact.

A valuable tool for Ofsted inspections, as I was able to use data to show the impact of the provision.

Pricing

We work alongside our partner schools to provide a full cost benefit analysis, including calculating the teaching cost, in order to provide a full Inclusion Centre cost break down. This allows us to structure KPIs related to the reduction of AP placement and PX spend, to ensure the provision is budget friendly, and in some case creating an overall cost saving for your school and/or trust.
